

Improve Your Playground With PEACEFUL PLAYGROUNDS™

"We have found that lots of playground problems are directly related to the fact that most playgrounds simply don't have enough for children to do."

— Melinda Bossenmeyer, Ed.D., Peaceful Playgrounds™ designer

Research indicates the average playground provides for 6 game activities. While Peaceful Playgrounds™ offers nearly 100 game and activity choices.

Well marked game activities provide increased motivation for children to enter into an activity and become engaged in purposeful play, thus cutting down on playground confrontations.

"Our teachers have been able to spend more time teaching and less time settling playground disputes!"

— South Elementary School, IL

"With lots of game choices, children have lots to do and few conflicts."

— Principal Debbie Blow, CA
